Regular Mailing Job

- Questionnaire and summons mailing of approximately 1,000 - 3,000 pieces.
- The mailing consists of a #10 carrier envelope, a pre-addressed questionnaire, summons, and a #9 business reply envelope.
- The questionnaire and summons will be folded and inserted along with a business reply envelope into the carrier envelope with the address from the summons appearing through the window.

*Regular Mailings can vary between 1,000 - 3,000 pieces. If the price changes due to the varied amount of pieces, please provide the price difference on the next page. *

Special Mailing Job

- Questionnaire, summons, and pre-screening form mailing of approximately 1,000 - 3,000 pieces periodically.
- The mailing consists of a #10 carrier envelope, a pre-addressed questionnaire, summons, pre-screening form, and a #9 business reply envelope.
- The questionnaire, summons, and pre-screening form will be folded and inserted along with a business reply envelope into the carrier envelope with the address from the summons appearing through the window.

*Special Mailings can vary between 1,000 - 3,000 pieces. If the price changes due to the varied amount of pieces, please provide the price difference on the next page. *

Metering the #10 Envelopes

- After the material has been inserted into the envelopes, the envelopes will be metered and pre-sorted for the lowest allowable First Class rate.
- Delivered to the Post Office within 72 hours after pickup from the courthouse.
- Postage will need to be billed as a separate cost (reimbursable) and postage cannot be paid up front by U.S. District Court. *

Upon completion of each order, the contractor is to notify Juan Rivera, Procurement and Facilities Specialist, and Regina Larry, the Jury Administrator of the Jury Office

- The U.S. District Court will supply the vendor with a report which lists the names and addresses in alphabetical order to be used for accountability purposes.
- The court will be provided a report with the number of pieces of mail dropped to the U.S. Postal Service within 5 business days.
- In the event of destruction of a piece of pre-addressed material, the U.S. District Court will be notified and all ruined or unused materials will be returned to the U.S. District Court.
- 100% accountability is required for all pre-addressed materials.
- A confidentiality statement must be signed and submitted to the U.S. District Court for security reasons.

Proposals must be submitted to the court no later than 5:00 P.M., on Wednesday, December 31, 2014.
